

I travel a lot with my business many times in very remote areas.. I have been an xm radio subscriber for over 2 years now. Being the music lover that I am I love the xm radio because I never loose signal, I can enjoy the things that are important to me. I think that the government has too much control over what people want.. heck.. let us make the decision... We are the ones paying for it?? Right?Thanks!!!

Gena